If you are 17 years old or younger and covered under your parents' or guardians' insurance plan:

You should know that private insurance companies send out a letter called an explanation of benefits or EOB to the insurance policy holder (your parents or guardians) about the health care services you receive at the clinic. Let the clinic staff know if you do not want your parents or guardian to know that you receive services at the clinic.

If you are 18 years old or older and have private insurance coverage and are not the policy holder:

You should know that private insurance companies send out a letter called an explanation of benefits or EOB to the insurance policy holder about the health care services you receive at the clinic. You may contact your insurance company to request that EOBs be sent to you instead of the policy holder to protect your privacy.
